PROVISIONS OF THE EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE PLAN

Before the child's first day of attendance, parents must be informed of the provisions in the home's Emergency Preparedness and Response Plan (Standards for Licensed Family Day Home 22 VAC 40-111-70 A 16).

To the Parent (s) of	(child's name) :
This letter is to assure you of our concern for the safety and welfare of children attending (insert name of family day home).
Our Emergency Plan provides for response to all types of emecircumstance of the emergency, we will use one of the following
 Immediate evacuation Children are evacuated to a safe a fire, etc. 	area near the home in the event of a
 In-place sheltering Sudden occurrences, weather or haz that taking cover inside the home is the best immediate response
 Relocation Total evacuation of the home may become need to be a selected in this case, children will be taken to a relocation site at	ecessary if there is a danger in the area.
(insert name/physical address of re	elocation site)
We ask that you not call during the emergency. This will keep emergency calls and relay information.	the main telephone line free to make
We will have your contact information with us and you will be can emergency action so that arrangements can be made for
In your child's record at this home are the names of persons y if you not able to do so. Please ensure that only those person up your child.
We specifically urge you not to attempt to make different arrar will only create additional confusion and divert staff from their
In order to assure the safety of your children and our staff, we cooperation. Should you have additional questions regarding please let us know.
Parent Signature	 Date